Receipts for all sums sent will be transmitted to the Editor, and will be free of postage.

DEMOCRATIC EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The Democratic Executive Committee of North-Carolina consists of the following gentlemen: Their Post-offices are annexed to their names:

Abraham Rencher, Chairman, Post-office, Post-office, Raleigh, N. C.

Edward Cantwell, of New Hanover; Post-office, Wilmington, N. C.

D. G. Ward, of Greene; Post-office, Stantonsburg, Edgecombe.

Robert P. Dick, of Guilford; Post-office, Greensboro, N. C.

Perrin Busbee, of Wake; Post-office, Raleigh, N. C.

W. W. Holden, of Wake; Post-office, Raleigh, N. C.

G. W. Wright, of Cumberland; Post-office, Fayetteville, N. C.

A. Biggs, of Martin; Post-office, Williamston, N. C.

Warren Winslow, of Cumberland, is the National Democratic Committee-man for this State; Post-office, Fayetteville, N. C.

Resolved, That Congress has no power under the Constitution to interfere with or control the domestic institutions of the several States, and that such States are the sole and proper judges of everything appertaining to their own affairs, not prohibited by the Constitution; that all efforts of the abolitionists or others made to induce Congress to interfere with questions of slavery, or to take incipient steps in relation thereto, are calculated to lead to the most alarming and dangerous consequences; and that all such efforts have an inevitable tendency to diminish the happiness of the people, and endanger the stability and permanency of the Union, and ought not to be countenanced by any friend of our political institutions.

Resolved, That the foregoing proposition cannot be intended to embrace the whole subject of slavery agitation in Congress, and therefore the Democratic party of the Union, standing upon this national platform, will abide by and adhere to a faithful execution of the last Congress—the act for the relief of fugitives from service or labor included—which act, being designed to carry out an express provision of the Constitution, cannot, with fidelity thereto, be repealed or so changed as to destroy or impair its efficiency.

Resolved, That the Democratic party will resist all attempts at renewing in Congress or out of it, the agitation of the Slavery question, under whatever sign or color the attempt may be made.

Resolutions Democratic National Convention, 1852.

"I accept the nomination upon the platform adopted by the Convention, not because this is expected of me as a candidate, but because the principles it embraces command the approbation of my judgment; and with them I believe I can and will persevere, there has been no word nor act of my life in conflict."

FRANKLIN PIERCE.

"I am persuaded that it is a high moral obligation of masters and slaveholding States to employ all means, and not inconsistent with the rights of man, to liberate the slave, and to exterminate slavery."

WINFIELD SCOTT.

"No interference by Congress with the existence of Slavery in any slave State, but a firm and vigilant legislation to enforce the laws of the United States, Territory, or the acquisition of any foreign Territory where Slavery may exist. A perpetual protest against the hunting of fugitive slaves in the free States as an irresistible cause of agitation, all feeling of alienation between the North and the South. A firm, earnest, inflexible testimony, in connection with the whole non-slaveholding Christian world, that human Slavery, though legally protected, is morally wrong and ought to be speedily terminated."

HORACE GREELY, June 25, 1852.

"You insist that you have no objection to the Union with which Slavery is discussed in the free States. Will war for Slavery—arrest, or even moderate that discussion? No, Sir; that discussion will not cease; war would only inflame it to a greater height. It is part of the eternal conflict between truth and error—between mind and physical force—the conflict of man against the obstacles which oppose his way to an ultimate and glorious destiny. It will go on until you shall terminate it in the only way in which any State or nation has ever terminated it—yielding to it—yielding in your own time, and in your own manner, indeed, but nevertheless yielding to the progress of emancipation."—WM. H. SEWARD, 1850.

Letter from Gen. FRANKLIN PIERCE to Maj. LABLEY.

"TREMONT HOUSE, Boston, May 27, 1852.

Intended to speak to you more fully upon the subject of the compromise measures than I had an opportunity to do. The importance of the action of the convention upon this question cannot be over-estimated. I believe there will be no division of opinion on the part of the South to press resolutions unnecessarily offensive to the sentiments of the North, but can we say as much on our side? Will the North come cheerfully up to the mark of constitutional right? If not, a breach in our party is inevitable. The mover should be met at the threshold, because it rises above party, and looks to the very existence of the confederacy. The sentiment of no one State is to be regarded on this subject; but having fought the battle in New Hampshire upon the fugitive-slave law, and upon what we believed to be the ground of constitutional right, we should of course desire the approval of the democracy of the country.

Will I wish to you to this? If the compromise measures are to be substantially and firmly maintained, the plain rights secured by the constitution will be trampled in the dust. What difference can it make to you or me whether the outrage shall fall on South Carolina, or Maine, or New Hampshire? At the bottom of each equally dear to us all? I will never yield to a cruel spirit that, from considerations of policy, which would endanger the Union. Entertaining these views, the action of the convention must be vital. If we of the North who have stood by the constitutional rights of the South are to be abandoned to any time-serving policy, the hopes of democracy and of the Union must sink together. As I told you, my name will not be before the convention; but I cannot help feeling that what is there to be done will be important beyond men and parties—transcending liberty to the hopes of democratic progress and civil liberty.

Your friend,
FRANK PIERCE.

ISAAC PROCTER,

Successor to the late Firm of Oliver and Procter.)
Merchant Tailor,

At the old Stand, "UGLY ROW," opposite the GRAPE, "do do" below Williams, Haywood & Co's Drug Store, has recently returned from the Northern Cities, (purchased) and has received a large and (all say) well selected assortment of goods in his line which, (from the universally acknowledged reputation of the establishment) he deems it entirely unnecessary to enumerate; but will simply say his assortment comprises every article belonging to the wardrobe of a gentleman, never excepted.

In addition to his complete stock of unmanufactured goods, he has a fine assortment of READY MADE CLOTHING, of his own and foreign manufacture—all of which he would be pleased to exhibit, free of charge.

With sincere thanks to the patrons of the old firm, and of their successor, he assures them no effort or pains shall be spared to give them entire satisfaction.

Gentlemen who are disposed to patronize the North, in preference to those who surround their own hearth stone, he particularly solicits to give him a call. If he does not give them as good a [better fitting] garment as they can get elsewhere, he will be satisfied.

Mr. G. L. GOULD, the talented pupil of Mr. OLIVER, is still with him, and his success as a cutter is rarely equalled.

Mr. P. gives his attention to the Pantalons and Vest department. They speak for themselves.

Gentlemen furnishing their own goods may rely upon the receiving of the attention with those purchased of the "Emporium."

Cutting done at all times and at reasonable prices. In conclusion, he will say, although the "BUG" has left the establishment, in his varied departments, genuine Entological skill.

FOR THE NORTHERN CITIES BY

The Seaboard & Roanoke Railroad.

THE PUBLIC are informed that the Seaboard and Roanoke Rail Road Company have completed their new bridge across Roanoke River at Weldon, and are now prepared to transport passengers and freight from Weldon to Portsmouth and Norfolk, and the Northern Cities promptly and with dispatch.

The Cars leave Weldon daily at 3 1/2 o'clock, P. M., and arrive at Portsmouth at 7 o'clock, P. M., in time to connect with one of the Chesapeake Bay Steamers, HERALD, GEORGIA OR NORTH CAROLINA, for Baltimore, and arrive at Baltimore early next morning, in time to connect with the morning train that leaves for Philadelphia and New York.

By this comfortable and agreeable route, Passengers leaving Wilmington in the morning train, will arrive early the next morning at Baltimore, and reach New York the same evening, without loss of sleep, and with but one change of person and baggage between Weldon and Baltimore, and avoid entirely night travelling on Rail Roads.

To render this route as safe and comfortable as possible, the company have employed careful and reliable baggage agents, who check all baggage at Weldon, and another trouble with his baggage until he reaches Baltimore.

The Chesapeake Bay Steamers also stop at OLD POINT, to land and receive Passengers, and Passengers who leave Weldon at 3 1/2 o'clock, P. M., arrive at Old Point the same evening.

An arrangement has been entered into, by the different Rail Road and Steamboat Companies, by which the same Through Ticket issued at Charleston, will leave it optional with the traveller to take either route at Weldon.

An accommodation train leaves Weldon every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday morning for Portsmouth, Norfolk, and OLD POINT COMFORT. Passengers by either train for Old Point, will reach Old Point the same evening.

FOR THROUGH TICKETS to Baltimore and New York, and for other information desired, enquire of the Agent at Weldon.

Land for Sale, Stock, &c.

THE Subscriber, wishing to follow merchandizing in Charleston, S. C., will sell on the 1st day of December next, at public auction, at Marion Court House, South Carolina, fourteen acres of land, lying on the road leading from that place to Bennettsville. Said lands are highly productive for corn, cotton, peas, wheat, &c. &c. There is a stream (Catahou) running through the land which would afford much profit for a mill, as in a dry time no other stream would hold out. Sawing would also be profitable here.

There are about 350 acres of this land under cultivation, all of which has been cleared within the last nine years, and produces abundantly corn, cotton, oats, wheat, potatoes, rice, &c. The woodland is of fine growth; there are numerous swamps spreading through it, which, if drained, would produce as well one hundred years as they would in a good year, and has a splendid view of the sea.

It is the best kind of land in this country. There is a splendid new dwelling house on the plantation, neatly painted and plastered, and all other outbuildings necessary for a farmer—fences, gates, and garden all in good repair.

The whole of the land and place, will be sold for two match horses, six mules, thirty-six head of cattle, eight milch cows, one yoke of oxen, one hundred and twenty-eight head of sheep, one hundred and seventy-six head of hogs, or more; and a variety of household and kitchen furniture. Also, farming utensils, sixty kind of corn, weighing from 330 to 410 cwt.—1,200 bushels of corn, 150 bushels of peas, 15,000 pounds of fodder, 8,000 pounds of bacon, seven negroes aged from two years to 28 years; and a variety of liquors.

Terms of Sale. All sums under $10 cash—all over, five months credit; notes with good security will be required.

LAND FOR SALE.

THE subscriber wishing to go to Alabama next Spring, will deliver to the highest bidder, in the County of Wadsworth, N. C., on the first day of September next, 700 acres of land, lying on Cedar Creek, joining the lands of A. R. Stuart, Esq., J. D. Kinney, Esq., A. Moore and others. There are about 175 acres cleared with good fences, and the balance is in a splendid state of cultivation. The land is well watered, and has a splendid view of the sea. It is the best kind of land in this country. There is a splendid new dwelling house on the plantation, neatly painted and plastered, and all other outbuildings necessary for a farmer—fences, gates, and garden all in good repair.

The whole of the land and place, will be sold for two match horses, six mules, thirty-six head of cattle, eight milch cows, one yoke of oxen, one hundred and twenty-eight head of sheep, one hundred and seventy-six head of hogs, or more; and a variety of household and kitchen furniture.
